OUR 10TH ANNIVERSARY YEAR JUNE 3, 2003 – JUNE 3, 2013

APRIL'S GENERAL MEETING

Today's Speaker: Eric Conroy, S.S. Keewatin

President's Message

President Betty Baker

It's Springtime (somewhere). April showers should be bringing May flowers, butterflies and bees and sunny hours. This has been the longest winter I can remember but hopefully it will mean we will have a longer summer. But as long as we are healthy and happy that is really the main thing isn't it? I hope everyone has had a Happy Easter - it was early this year but it is never too soon to enjoy family and friends gathered around. A lot of our friends will be returning from holidays and we will soon have our usual crowd back at the Probud tables. Even if we do not have an early spring - enjoy life to the fullest!!

NOTE: Please bring almost new items to the May meeting for our Silent Auction.

MARCH'S SPEAKER

Tom Donohue introduced this month's speaker, Nathan Wukasch, CIP, RPP, planner for the town of Wasaga Beach. Nathan talked about the strategic plan for Beaches 1 and 2. The final report is due this spring. There are short, medium and long range recommendations. The realignment of Main Street is a major undertaking. The plans include new structures, a wide view of the bay crossing the bridge and a public square. There was an accompanying power point presentation and it all looked very attractive. It was pointed out that this vision may take 40 years to accomplish and I am sure we all cannot wait. Concerns were raised by members about tax increases because of this undertaking. Also, the priority of frequent cleanup of the actual beach waterfront was raised by members. Tom thanked Nathan and presented him with a token of our appreciation.

SOCIAL

BOWLING Wednesday March 20th

Bowling at Georgian Bowl was a great success with many screams of delight and groans of disappointment (as well as groans with sore muscles the next day.) The group went out to dinner at the Crystal Buffet to socialize and mingle and met up with several non-bowling members and all enjoyed the glorious food – a fitting conclusion to a fun time.

Joan and Joe announce.....The winners – Irene, Janet, Fred, Bonnie and Joanne. Congratulations to all the participants and thanks to the social committee for a fun event.

NOTE: ARE YOU GETTING READY FOR THE SILENT AUCTION IN MAY?

After the bowling we all enjoyed dinner at the Crystal Buffet.

NIGHT AT THE RACES has been cancelled as proper arrangements could not be made between the race track and the government. There is no social event planned for April.

KEEWATIN BOAT TOUR 11:00 A.M. Thursday May 16th.

This is a tour of the “Keewatin” ship docked at Port McNicoll. Eric Conroy from the SS Keewatin in Port McNicoll will be speaking at our April 2 meeting about the Boat Tour

The 105-year-old S.S. Keewatin, the last Canadian Pacific Railway Great Lakes steamship.

A big THANK YOU to our greeters at the March meeting, John and Kathy Dunnett.

NOTE: Don't forget the Silent Auction during our May meeting. Bring “nearly new” sellable items to the meeting on the actual day – May 7. Thank you.

Important notice to all members regarding our Beachcombers 10th Anniversary meeting in June.

 We require your name on the 'sign up' sheet if you plan to attend our 10th Anniversary celebration on Tuesday, June 4th which is the date of our regular monthly meeting.

These lists will be available at both the April and May meetings. Please go to the side table, a committee member will be there to reserve your name. This is most important as concise numbers are necessary for the caterers. We will have a small selection of 'finger food' to choose from at the luncheon, which will be served after the regular meeting. Entertainment is also planned which will be provided by our members.

NO GUESTS IN JUNE, PLEASE

* As there are food costs involved, we are requesting no guests for this particular meeting. It will be open to all those who have a current Beachcombers membership.

* Please note to bring a 'nearly new' item to our May 7th meeting for the Silent Auction. The proceeds from this endeavour will assist to defray the costs for this day.

* Your Committee has been planning to make June 4th a fun, nostalgic review of the past 10 years. Please reserve your name and join in this celebration.

Committee members: Marilyn Ruse, Rickey Lemire, Tom Donohue, Gene Stephenson and Betty Keyes.

First Edition Book Club Review

In March, the First Edition Book Club read Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet by Jamie Ford. When we first meet Henry Lee, it is 1986, and he is walking past the Panama Hotel in Seattle, which has been boarded up since World War II. He notices the new owner carrying boxes of personal items that belonged to Japanese families who were evacuated to internment camps during the war. This takes Henry back to his childhood memories. In 1942, when he was 12 years old, he was "scholarshipping" at Rainier Elementary, the only Chinese student in an all-white school. Henry's father, a Chinese nationalist who is against the Japanese, insists that Henry wear a button that declares "I am Chinese". This button provokes teasing and bullying by his classmates. The tension between Henry and his father is a major theme of the book. A young Japanese girl, Keiko Okabe, also becomes a student in the school, and identifies with Henry's plight. The two strike up a lasting friendship. Their shared love of jazz music brings them friends with the neighborhood corner musician Sheldon who sneaks them into a club to listen to Oscar Holden play. This night becomes a sacred shared memory for the two of them. Keiko and her Japanese family are eventually evacuated to an internment camp. Henry, along with help from Sheldon and Mrs. Beatty, the cafeteria lady from his school, is able to see her occasionally. They eventually lose touch and Henry marries a lady named Ethel. After Ethel passes away, Henry shares his memories with his son Marty who helps him search for Keiko. The story is beautifully written with memorable characters and vivid details. It was well liked by all members and rated 4.75 out of 5

ROMEO (MEN'S) BREAKFAST GROUP

The ROMEO MEN'S Breakfast group meet on the last Wednesday of the month for fellowship, and a good breakfast. In March about 10 of us met at GEORGIAN CIRCLE on WEDNESDAY March 27, 013 at 9:00 AM for breakfast. We had another small turn out as quite a few are still down south soaking up the sun, and doing the snowbird thing.

In April we will be meeting for breakfast at YAMMAS GRILL on April 27, 2013 at 9:00AM.

We have 24 on our list, and we average about 18 for breakfast. If you wish to join us for the first time call Bob Bowyer at 705-429-0579. We try to give them an approximate count a few days before as to how many will be attending.

BIRTHDAYS/ANNIVERSARIES

Best wishes to all those who celebrate in April.

DAYTRIPPERS

Did you know that you can make a reservation for lunch or dinner at the Waterside Retirement Lodge on Zoo Park Road? Call the Food Services Manager a few days prior, and you will be given a choice of items available on the menu for that particular day. The cost is reasonable. The Daytrippers combined a luncheon followed by Irish entertainment for our outing in March. We were impressed with the various amenities available for the residents, all spacious and cheerful areas where they gather for meals, movies, library, games and social activities. Our members enjoyed lunch in their spacious dining room; this was followed by a musical selection of all those familiar Irish songs sung by a husband and wife who provided the entertainment for St. Patrick's Day. Waterside also has an evening once a month where they open their doors to local residents for dinner and a movie. These evenings are advertised in our local paper and a reservation is necessary. Here is an interesting fact that you might not be aware of. Perhaps you are requiring additional accommodation for friends or family during holidays, or special occasions. You may reserve a room at the lodge for short term stays. All in all, it was an enjoyable, entertaining, and informative afternoon close to home. Submitted by Betty Keyes

Goodwill

Please pass information regarding sickness, hospital stays, or death of a member to our Goodwill Convener, Shirley Brett. If you don't tell us, we may miss sending out a card. Brian Passmore was sent a card. Hope you're feeling better, Brian.

Q: When do monkeys fall from the sky?
A: During Ape-ril showers!

Q: Can February March?
A: No, but April May!

Q: Why is everyone so tired on April 1?
A: Because they've just finished a long, 31 day March!

Q: What season is it when you are on a trampoline?
A: Spring-time!

Some spring highjinks
