OUR 10TH ANNIVERSARY YEAR JUNE 3, 2003 – JUNE 3, 2013

MAY'S GENERAL MEETING

Today: Silent Auction Day

President's Message

Well, as you all know it is the first of May and here I am going around the May Pole. You all probably thought it was a different kind of a pole but it is not (fooled you). We have had a wonderful introduction to May and I really think you can put those winter boots away. It's time to clean up the garden, plant new seeds and fill those pots with beautiful flowers. We are all looking forward to the wonderful weather known as summer and it looks like it might actually be on its way. Our 10th anniversary is next month and it will really be something to look forward to. Betty Keyes and her team are planning something very special and we are really looking forward to it.

Happy Month of May, everyone.

President Betty Baker

APRIL'S SPEAKER

Marilyn Ruse introduced this month's speaker, Eric Conroy of the

S.S. Keewatin. We learned that the Keewatin is the last surviving ship from the Titanic era being built around a hundred years ago. It was originally a large grain ship and was part of the history of the formation of our modern Canada as it enabled the grain from the west to be moved east. It was transformed to a passenger ship and Eric served aboard her as a young waiter. We watched part of a documentary about the Keewatin which will air on TV in either June or July. Watch for it. It now is located in Port McNicoll and our social committee has arranged a tour of the ship later this month.

Eric has written a book, "A Steak in the Drawer" about his time as a waiter. Marilyn thanked Eric for his very informative talk and presented him with a token of our appreciation.

A big thank you to our greeters for April, Brian and Helena Aherne

Important notice regarding our Beachcombers 10th Anniversary meeting

We require your name on the 'sign up' sheet if you plan to attend our 10th Anniversary celebration on June 4th. Today's meeting is the LAST opportunity to sign up. Please go to the side table, a committee member will be there to reserve your name. This is most important as concise numbers are necessary for the caterers. We will have a small selection of 'finger food' to choose from at the luncheon, which will be served after the regular meeting. Entertainment is also planned which will be provided by our members.

* As there are food costs involved, we are requesting no guests for this particular meeting. It will be open to all those who have a current Beachcombers membership.

* The committee thanks everyone in advance who donated 'nearly new' items for the May Silent Auction. The proceeds from this endeavour will assist to defray the costs for the Anniversary celebration. Please join us for a fun, nostalgic review of the past 10 years.

This is your last chance to reserve your name

Committee members: Marilyn Ruse, Rickey Lemire, Tom Donohue, Gene Stephenson and Betty Keyes.

First Edition Book Club Review

In April, the First Edition Book Club read Dreams of Joy by Lisa See. This book is a continuation of Shanghai Girls (which we read last year). The author continues the story of sisters Pearl and May and Pearl's strong-willed 19 year old daughter, Joy.

Reeling from newly uncovered family secrets Joy runs away to Shanghai in early 1957 to find her birth father and to "live the dream" that China's propaganda has been spouting. Joy's blind idealism and defiance throws her into the New Society of Red China (The Great Leap Forward), heedless of the dangers in the communist regime. Devastated by Joy's flight and terrified for her safety, Pearl is determined to save her daughter, no matter the personal cost. Their journey takes them through the most tragic episodes in China's history and threatens their very lives. The family is challenged by tragedy and time. Will a mother's love be enough to save her daughter? We rated the book 4 out of 5.

The Happy Bookers

Night Watch by Sarah Waters begins in 1947 and ends in 1941. It's about four Londoners, three women and a young man with a past. Kay, who once drove an ambulance during the war and lived life at full throttle, now dresses in mannish clothes and wanders the streets with a restless hunger....searching. Helen, clever, sweet, much-loved harbours a painful secret. Vivian, glamour girl is stubbornly even foolishly loyal to her soldier lover. Duncan, an apparent innocent has his own demons to deal with during the war. Their lives and their secrets connect in sometimes startling ways. War leads to strong alliances. It was interesting reading a book in reverse order, however not everyone enjoyed it or would recommend it.

APRIL LUCKY DRAW WINNERS

1st prize of $57.00 ---- Joyce Frost
2nd prize of $35.00 --- Jeanne Boem
3rd prize of $22.00 ---- Kathy Cantin

PLEASE BRING COINS TO THE LUCKY DRAW TABLE AND BUY TICKETS BEFORE THE MEETING STARTS

ROMEO (MEN'S) BREAKFAST GROUP

The ROMEO MEN'S Breakfast group meet on the last Wednesday of the month for fellowship, and a good breakfast. In April, 17 of us met at YAMMAS on WEDNESDAY APRIL 24, 2013 at 9:00 AM for breakfast. The snow birds have all returned. It was great having Brian Passmore join us for breakfast again. Brian shared some pictures of his Florida Biking Club, and brought us up to date on his bicycle accident.

In May we will be meeting for breakfast at GEORGIAN FAMILY CIRCLE RESTAURANT on MAY 29, 2013 at 9:00AM.

We have 24 on our list, and we average about 18 for breakfast. If you wish to join us for the first time call Bob Bowyer at 705-

429-0579. We try to give them an approximate count a few days before as to how many will be attending.

BIRTHDAYS/ANNIVERSARIES

Best wishes to all those who celebrate in May.

DAYTRIPPERS

The Daytrippers' April outing was in Elmvalle for their 48th Maple Syrup Festival. First of all, we headed off to a chili luncheon at the local Presbyterian Church. There were many eating options to choose from in town, with the majority of the visitors enjoying the traditional pancake, sausages and maple syrup which was offered at the Community Centre.

For those who were adventuresome and could endure the cold windy temperatures, there was music to enjoy from performers at the bandstand and numerous items for sale at the kiosks on the streets (which were closed to all traffic) to tempt the customers. Down at the Fairgrounds one could find a good sized midway set up with lively music for the children. At the arena every square foot was taken with wonderful merchandise and homemade goodies on display by the vendors. Upstairs was yet another place to enjoy a dessert and beverage. In addition, there was a quilt display with stories attached of their origins. We loved the quilt with the wedding photographs incorporated of a bride and groom in 1957. Fast forward to their 50th wedding anniversary and we also saw their family members in various photos super imposed on the quilt. Another unique feature was the fact that their guests also signed various squares and these were added to the finished treasure. What a unique way of celebrating 50 years of married life! We will return to The Festival next year, and hope the weather is kinder for all those who visit this annual event.

Phone Home?

Lionel phones his mother Long distance.

'Mum, how are you?' he asks.

'Not too good,' answers Lionel's mother, 'I've been very weak.'

Lionel, concerned, asks, 'Why are you so weak, mother?'

She says, 'Because I haven't eaten in 23 days'

Lionel stammers, 'That's terrible. Why haven't you eaten in 23 days?'

His mother replies, 'Because I didn't want my mouth to be filled with food if you should phone.'

Two Quotations to Ponder

I want my children to have all the things I couldn't afford.
Then I want to move in with them. - Phyllis Diller

All women become like their mothers. That is their tragedy.
No man does. That's his. - Oscar Wilde

Happy Mother's Day to all mothers everywhere!
